

Govt committed to providing quota to Marathas: Maha CM

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, January 25

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Eknath Shinde on Thursday reiterated that his government was committed to providing reservation to Marathas without touching the existing quotas of other communities.

Talking to reporters at his native place in Satara district, he said the authorities were working expeditiously to complete the survey to prove the social and educational backwardness of the Maratha community.

He made the statement as Maratha quota activist Manoj Jarange, who along with his thousands of supporters, is marching towards Mumbai. Jarange plans to launch a protest at Azad Maidan in south Mumbai from Friday to press for the Maratha quota demand.

Shinde said he has already told Jarange that his government was determined to provide reservation to Marathas and it was extending all the benefits to them just like the Other Backward Classes (OBCs).

ADDRESS TO NATION ON THE EVE OF R-DAY

Ram temple landmark in India's history: President

DIVYAA
New Delhi, January 25

CALLING THE CONSECRATION ceremony at the new Ram temple in Ayodhya a "landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage", President Droupadi Murmu on Thursday said the temple was an expression of people's faith, and a testament to their trust in the judicial process.

Addressing the nation on the eve of the 75th Republic Day, Murmu said: "Earlier this week, we witnessed the historic consecration ceremony of the idol of Prabhuram in the glorious new temple constructed at his birthplace in Ayodhya... When this event will be seen in the wider perspective, the future historians will consider it a landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage."

"The construction of the temple commenced after the due judicial process and the decision of the highest court of the land... Now it stands as a grand edifice, giving a befitting expression not only of people's faith but also as a testament to people's enormous trust in the judicial process," she said.

On Wednesday, the Union Cabinet had adopted a resolution congratulating Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the consecration ceremony, stating that while "the body of the country attained independence in 1947, the Pran Pratishtha of its soul was done on January 22, 2024," and "everyone experienced spiritual bliss".

The resolution said Modi had fulfilled a dream that the "Indian civilisation had dreamt for five centuries".

On the eve of the consecration ceremony, the President had also penned a note to the Prime Minister, calling the event an uninhibited expression of the eternal soul of India. "We are fortunate to witness the commencement of a new cycle in the resurgence of our nation," she had said.

In her televised address on Thursday evening, Murmu said her heart was filled with pride at seeing "how far we have travelled despite adversities". "The 75th year of the Republic is truly a historic milestone in the journey of the nation in many ways. This is an especially fes-

sive occasion, just as we celebrated the unique greatness and diverse culture of our nation during the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, when we completed 75 years of Independence," she said.

"Tomorrow is the day when we celebrate the commencement of the Constitution. Its Preamble begins with the words 'We, the People of India', highlighting the theme of the document, namely, democracy. In India, democratic system is much older than the concept of western democracy. That is the reason why India is called the 'mother of democracy'," she said.

Murmu said the country is in "the early years of Amrit Kaal, the period leading to the centenary of Independence", the time of "an epochal transformation".

Don't need to sound election bugle, people do it for me: PM

DHEERAJ MISHRA
Bulandshahr, January 25

LAUNCHING A SLEW of development projects in western Uttar Pradesh in the countdown to the Lok Sabha polls, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said Thursday that he only sounds the "bugle of vikas" (development) and it is the "janata janardan" (the people) who sound the election bugle for him.

Addressing a gathering in Bulandshahr after inaugurating and laying the foundation stone of development projects worth more than ₹19,100 crore, Modi said, "Today we are making every effort to ensure that benefits of government schemes reach every beneficiary. That's why Modi is guaranteeing saturation, guaranteeing 100 percent. This removes any possibility of discrimination or corruption. This is true secularism, true social justice."

The dreams of the poor, farmers, women and youth, he said, are the same in every society. Due to the efforts of the government, 250 million people, he said, were brought out of poverty in the last 10 years.

"I saw some media reports saying that Modi will sound the election bugle today. Modi only sounds the bugle of vikas (development), Modi sounds the bugle for the welfare of the last person in the line. Modi did not sound the poll bugle earlier nor does he need it now and will not need it in the future. The janata janardan (people) keep doing it for him. When people sound the bugle for him, Modi does not need to spend time on it, he spends time serving the people," he said.

At the gathering, where regional leaders and BJP workers hailed the consecration ceremony of the Ram temple in Ayodhya, raised Jai Shri Ram slogans and DJs played songs on Lord Ram, Modi referred to the Pran Pratishtha ceremony on January 22 and the contribution of former Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Kalyan Singh to the temple cause—the late leader was from western UP and he was Chief Minister when the Babri Masjid was razed on December 6, 1992.

"This region gave a son like Kalyan Singh to the nation who dedicated his life to both Ram Kaaj and Rashtra Kaaj (Ram's work and nation's work). Where he is today, he must be very happy seeing Ayodhya Dham.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi said dreams of poor, farmers, women and youth are the same in every society

The country has fulfilled the dream of Kalyan Singh and many people like him," he said.

After the consecration ceremony of the Ram temple in Ayodhya, it is time, he said, to elevate the prestige of the nation. "We have to further strengthen the country through 'Dev se Desh' and 'Ram se Rashtra'," he said.

The Prime Minister dedicated development projects worth over ₹19,100 crore to the nation across sectors like railways, road, oil and gas and housing. These include the 173-km double line electrified section between New Kurjia and New Rewari on the Dedicated Freight Corridor (DFC), four-laning of the highway from Aligarh to Bhadwas, widening of the Meerut to Kamal border road via Shamli and Indian Oil's Tundla-Gawaria pipeline.

The development of the nation, he said, was not possible without the development of UP. "After independence, a large part of the country was deprived of development. Uttar Pradesh, with the largest population of the country, was not given much attention. Those in the government for a long time behaved like rulers. People were kept in poverty and they (the rulers) found the path of division in society to be the easiest means of gaining power. Many generations in UP have paid the price," he said.

"I am an MP from UP and it is my responsibility to take this state forward. The formation of the BJP government in 2017, leading to the double-engine government, has given a new impetus to development. Work is going on two big defence corridors in India, one of which is in western UP," he said.

Another Nitish U-turn likely; BJP holds talks, allies hold breath

SANTOSH SINGH
Patna, January 25

THE JD(U)-RJD-CONGRESS alliance in Bihar seemed on the brink on Thursday evening, with Chief Minister Nitish Kumar most likely to cross over to the NDA again.

Amidst talks of a rift, the RJD and JD(U) held separate meetings, while BJP state president Samrat Choudhary left for Delhi to hold discussions with top BJP leaders.

While the tension within the Mahagathbandhan has been growing, the speculation became stronger after Chief Minister and JD(U) supremo Nitish Kumar Wednesday appeared to target dynastic rule while paying homage to Karpoori Thakur at his centenary celebrations.

Though Nitish did not name anyone in his speech, some RJD leaders saw it as a direct attack on their party leaders Lalu Prasad and Tejashwi Yadav.

On Thursday morning, came the news that Nitish would not be attending the January 30 Purnia rally of Congress leader Rahul Gandhi as part of his Bharat Jodo Nyay Yatra, though the JD(U) had earlier indicated it would be there

along with the RJD.

Announcing that Nitish had other scheduled events that day, senior JD(U) leader and minister Vijay Kumar Choudhary said: "It is not necessary that all leaders in an alliance attend a meeting called by a partner."

Then, Nitish wrapped up a Cabinet meeting held on Thursday within 20 minutes, after just taking up the scheduled three items on the agenda related to the coming Budget Session. Sources said there was evident tension between the CM and Deputy CM Tejashwi at the meeting.

Later in the day, Lalu's Singapore-based daughter Rohini Acharya posted on social media platform X: "Samajwadi purodha hone ka karta wahi dawa hai, hawaon ki tarah badalti jinki vichardhara hai (One whose ideology changes with the direction of the wind claims to be the patron of socialism)."

'AAP govt inspired by Ram Rajya'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, January 25

AFTER ORGANISING a city wide commemoration of the Ram Mandir Pran Pratishtha ceremony, chief minister Arvind Kejriwal likened the Aam Aadmi Party's (AAP) eight-year rule in the capital to 'Ram Rajya' in his Republic Day address on Thursday.

Stating that his government was inspired by the concept, Kejriwal said it had sought to work on 10 principles inspired by the concept of Ram Rajya ranging from free ration to the poor and shelter to the homeless to free electricity, water, education, health, bus travel for women and pilgrimages to the elderly.

"We believe in establishing a governance system where everyone has equal rights and opportunities... Delhi's governance model has made it the city with lowest inflation in the country," Kejriwal said on the eve of Republic Day celebrations at the Chhatrasal Stadium.

After saluting and paying homage to freedom fighters, Kejriwal saluted the farmers, workers, industrialists, traders, scientists, women, youth and everyone who had contributed to taking India forward. "On 22nd January this year, Shri Ram Lalla was consecrated in Ayodhya, this is a moment of pride for the country and the world," he said.

Recalling episodes from Lord Ram's life and quoting couplets from religious texts dedicated to him, Kejriwal underlined how he willingly chose exile over governing his kingdom out of a sense of sacrifice.

ADDRESS TO NATION ON EVE OF R-DAY
Ram temple landmark in India's history: President

DIVYA A
New Delhi, January 25
CALLING THE CONSECRATION ceremony at the new Ram temple in Ayodhya a "landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage", President Droupadi Murmu on Thursday said the temple was an expression of people's faith, and a testament to their trust in the judicial process.

Addressing the nation on the eve of the 75th Republic Day, Murmu said: "Earlier this week, we witnessed the historic consecration ceremony of the idol of Prabhu Shri Ram in the glorious new temple constructed at his birthplace in Ayodhya... When this event will be seen in the wider perspective, the future historians will consider it a landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage."
"The construction of the temple commenced after the due judicial process and the decision of the highest court of the land... Now it stands as a grand edifice, giving a befitting expression not only of people's faith but also as a testament to people's enormous trust in the judicial process," she said. On Wednesday, the Union cabinet had adopted a resolution congratulating Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the consecration ceremony, stating that while "the body of the country attained independence in 1947, the Pran Pratishtha of its soul was done on January 22, 2024," and "everyone experienced spiritual bliss." People sound poll bugle for me: PM

LAUNCHING A SLEW of development projects in western Uttar Pradesh in the countdown to the Lok Sabha polls, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said on Thursday that he only sounds the "bugle of vikas" (development) and it is the "janata janardan" (the people) who sound the election bugle for him.

Addressing a gathering in Bulandshahr after inaugurating and laying the foundation stone of development projects worth more than ₹19,100 crore, Modi said, "Today we are making every effort to ensure that benefits of government schemes reach every beneficiary. That's why Modi is guaranteeing saturation, guaranteeing 100%. This removes any possibility of discrimination or corruption. This is true secularism, true social justice."

The dreams of the poor, farmers, women and youth, he said, are the same in every society. Due to the efforts of the government, 25 crore people, he said, were brought out of poverty in the last 10 years.

"I saw some media reports saying that Modi will sound the election bugle today. Modi only sounds the bugle of vikas (development), Modi sounds the bugle for the welfare of the last person in the line," he said.

ADDRESS TO NATION ON EVE OF R-DAY

Ram temple landmark in India's history: President

DIVYA A
New Delhi, January 25

CALLING THE CONSECRATION ceremony at the new Ram temple in Ayodhya a "landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage", President Droupadi Murmu on Thursday said the temple was an expression of people's faith, and a testament to their trust in the judicial process.

Addressing the nation on the eve of the 75th Republic Day, Murmu said: "Earlier this week, we witnessed the historic consecration ceremony of the idol of Prabhu Shri Ram in the glorious new temple constructed at his birthplace in Ayodhya... When this event will be seen in the wider perspective, the future historians will consider it a landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage."

"The construction of the temple commenced after the due judicial process and the decision of the highest court of the land... Now it stands as a grand edifice, giving a befitting expression not only of people's faith but also as a testament to people's enormous trust in the judicial process," she said. On Wednesday, the Union cabinet had adopted a resolution congratulating Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the consecration ceremony, stating that while "the body of the country attained independence in 1947, the Pran Pratishtha of its soul was done on January 22, 2024," and "everyone experienced spiritual bliss." The resolution said Modi had fulfilled a dream that the "Indian civilisation had dreamt for five centuries."

On the eve of the consecration ceremony, the President had also penned a note to the Prime Minister, calling the event an uninhibited expression of the eternal soul of India. "We are fortunate to witness the commencement of a new cycle in the resurgence of our nation," she had said.

In her televised address on Thursday evening, Murmu said her heart was filled with pride at seeing "how far we have travelled despite adversities." "The 75th year of the Republic truly a historic milestone in the journey of the nation in many ways. This is an especially festive occasion, just as we celebrated the unique greatness and diverse culture of our nation during the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, when we completed 75 years of Independence," she said.

"Tomorrow is the day when we celebrate the commencement of the Constitution. Its Preamble begins with the words 'We, the People of India', highlighting the theme of the document, namely, democracy. In India, democratic system is much older than the concept of western democracy. That is the reason why India is called the 'mother of democracy'," she said.

Murmu said the country is in "the early years of Amrit Kaal, the period leading to the centenary of Independence, the time of "an epochal transformation." Reminding the citizens of their fundamental duties, she said: "These duties are essential obligations of every citizen towards making Bharat a developed nation when it completes 100 years of independence. Here, I think of Mahatma Gandhi who had rightly said, 'No people have risen who thought only of rights. Only those did so who thought of duties'."

The President also made a special mention of the birth anniversary of former Bihar chief minister Karpoori Thakur, who has been awarded the Bharat Rtna posthumously, calling him the "tireless champion of social justice." "Karpoori ji was one of the greatest advocates of backward classes who dedicated his life for their welfare. His life was a message. I pay my tribute to Karpoori ji for enriching public life through his contributions," she said.

The President also made a mention of several landmark events over the last one year, including the G-20 Summit, Chandrayaan landing on the Moon and passage of the women's Bill. "The G20 Summit also boosted India's emergence as the voice of the Global South, adding a necessary element to the international discourse," she said.

On the women's reservation Bill, she said: "When more women will be involved in matters of collective importance, our administrative priorities will be more in tune with the needs of the masses."

And on India's space achievements, she mentioned the proposed Gaganyaan mission, the country's first manned space flight. "We have always been proud of our scientists and technology experts, but now they are aiming far higher than before and delivering too," she said.

Govt committed to providing quota to Marathas: Maha CM

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, January 25

MAHARASHTRA CHIEF MINISTER Eknath Shinde on Thursday reiterated that his government was committed to providing reservation to Marathas without touching the existing quotas of other communities.

Talking to reporters at his native place in Satara district, he said the authorities were working expeditiously to complete the survey to prove the social and educational backward-

ness of the Maratha community.

He made the statement as Maratha quota activist Manoj Jarange, who along with his thousands of supporters, is marching towards Mumbai. Jarange plans to launch a protest at Azad Maidan in south Mumbai from Friday to press for the Maratha quota demand.

Shinde said he has already told Jarange that his government was determined to provide reservation to Marathas and it was extending all the benefits to them just like the Other Backward Classes (OBCs).

ADDRESS TO NATION ON THE EVE OF R-DAY

Ram temple landmark in India's history: President

DIVYA A
New Delhi, January 25

CALLING THE CONSECRATION ceremony at the new Ram temple in Ayodhya a "landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage", President Droupadi Murmu on Thursday said the temple was an expression of people's faith, and a testament to their trust in the judicial process.

Addressing the nation on the eve of the 75th Republic Day, Murmu said: "Earlier this week, we witnessed the historic consecration ceremony of the idol of Prabhushri Ram in the glorious new temple constructed at his birthplace in Ayodhya... When this event will be seen in the wider perspective, the future historians will consider it a landmark in India's continued re-discovery of its civilisational heritage."

"The construction of the temple commenced after the due judicial process and the decision of the highest court of the land... Now it stands as a grand edifice, giving a befitting expression not only of people's faith but also as a testament to people's enormous trust in the judicial process," she said.

On Wednesday, the Union Cabinet had adopted a resolution congratulating Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the consecration ceremony, stating that while "the body of the country attained independence in 1947, the Pran Pratishtha of its soul was done on January 22, 2024," and "everyone experienced spiritual bliss".

The resolution said Modi had fulfilled a dream that the "Indian civilisation had dreamt for five centuries".

On the eve of the consecration ceremony, the President had also penned a note to the Prime Minister, calling the event an uninhibited expression of the eternal soul of India. "We are fortunate to witness the commencement of a new cycle in the resurgence of our nation," she had said.

In her televised address on Thursday evening, Murmu said her heart was filled with pride at seeing "how far we have travelled despite adversities". "The 75th year of the Republic is truly a historic milestone in the journey of the nation in many ways. This is an especially fes-

sive occasion, just as we celebrated the unique greatness and diverse culture of our nation during the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, when we completed 75 years of Independence," she said.

"Tomorrow is the day when we celebrate the commencement of the Constitution. Its Preamble begins with the words 'We, the People of India', highlighting the theme of the document, namely, democracy. In India, democratic system is much older than the concept of western democracy. That is the reason why India is called the 'mother of democracy'," she said.

Murmu said the country is in "the early years of Amrit Kaal, the period leading to the centenary of Independence", the time of "an epochal transformation".

Don't need to sound election bugle, people do it for me: PM

LAUNCHING A SLEW of development projects in western Uttar Pradesh in the countdown to the Lok Sabha polls, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said Thursday that he only sounds the "bugle of vikas" (development) and it is the "janata janardan" (the people) who sound the election bugle for him.

Addressing a gathering in Bulandshahr after inaugurating and laying the foundation stone of development projects worth more than ₹19,100 crore, Modi said, "Today we are making every effort to ensure that benefits of government schemes reach every beneficiary. That's why Modi is guaranteeing saturation, guaranteeing 100 percent. This removes any possibility of discrimination or corruption. This is true secularism, true social justice."

The dreams of the poor, farmers, women and youth, he said, are the same in every society. Due to the efforts of the government, 250 million people, he said, were brought out of poverty in the last 10 years.

"I saw some media reports saying that Modi will sound the election bugle today. Modi only sounds the bugle of vikas (development), Modi sounds the bugle for the welfare of the last person in the line. Modi did not sound the poll bugle earlier nor does he need it now and will not need it in the future. The janata janardan (people) keep doing it for him. When people sound the bugle for him, Modi does not need to spend time on it, he spends time serving the people," he said.

At the gathering, where regional leaders and BJP workers hailed the consecration ceremony of the Ram temple in Ayodhya, raised Jai Shri Ram slogans and DJs played songs on Lord Ram, Modi referred to the Pran Pratishtha ceremony on January 22 and the contribution of former Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Kalyan Singh to the temple cause - the late leader was from western UP and he was Chief Minister when the Babri Masjid was razed on December 6, 1992.

"This region gave a son like Kalyan Singh to the nation who dedicated his life to both Ram Kaaj and Rashtra Kaaj (Ram's work and nation's work). Where he is today, he must be very happy seeing Ayodhya Dham.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi said dreams of poor, farmers, women and youth are the same in every society

The country has fulfilled the dream of Kalyan Singh and many people like him," he said.

After the consecration ceremony of the Ram temple in Ayodhya, it is time, he said, to elevate the prestige of the nation. "We have to further strengthen the country through 'Dev se Desh' and 'Ram se Rashtra'," he said.

The Prime Minister dedicated development projects worth over ₹19,100 crore to the nation across sectors like railways, road, oil and gas and housing. These include the 173-km double line electrified section between New Khurja and New Rewari on the Dedicated Freight Corridor (DFC), four-laning of the highway from Aligarh to Bhadwas, widening of the Meerut to Karnal border road via Shamli and Indian Oil's Tundla-Gawaria pipeline.

The development of the nation, he said, was not possible without the development of UP. "After independence, a large part of the country was deprived of development. Uttar Pradesh, with the largest population of the country, was not given much attention. Those in the government for a long time behaved like rulers. People were kept in poverty and they (the rulers) found the path of division in society to be the easiest means of gaining power. Many generations in UP have paid the price," he said.

"I am an MP from UP and it is my responsibility to take this state forward. The formation of the BJP government in 2017, leading to the double-engine government, has given a new impetus to development. Work is going on two big defence corridors in India, one of which is in western UP," he said.

Another Nitish U-turn likely; BJP holds talks, allies hold breath

Patna, January 25

THE JD(U)-RJD-CONGRESS alliance in Bihar seemed on the brink on Thursday evening, with Chief Minister Nitish Kumar most likely to cross over to the NDA again.

Amidst talks of a rift, the RJD and JD(U) held separate meetings, while BJP state president Samrat Choudhary left for Delhi to hold discussions with top BJP leaders.

While the tension within the Mahagathbandhan has been growing, the speculation became stronger after Chief Minister and JD(U) supremo Nitish Kumar Wednesday appeared to target dynastic rule while paying homage to Karpoori Thakur at his centenary celebrations.

Though Nitish did not name anyone in his speech, some RJD leaders saw it as a direct attack on their party leaders Lalu Prasad and Tejashwi Yadav.

On Thursday morning, came the news that Nitish would not be attending the January 30 Purnia rally of Congress leader Rahul Gandhi as part of his Bharat Jodo Nyay Yatra, though the JD(U) had earlier indicated it would be there

along with the RJD.

Announcing that Nitish had other scheduled events that day, senior JD(U) leader and minister Vijay Kumar Choudhary said: "It is not necessary that all leaders in an alliance attend a meeting called by a partner."

Then, Nitish wrapped up a Cabinet meeting held on Thursday within 20 minutes, after just taking up the scheduled three items on the agenda related to the coming Budget Session. Sources said there was evident tension between the CM and Deputy CM Tejashwi at the meeting.

Later in the day, Lalu's Singapore-based daughter Rohini Acharya posted on social media platform X: "Samajwadi purodha hone ka karta wahi dawa hai, hawaon ki tarah badalti jinki vichardhara hai (One whose ideology changes with the direction of the wind claims to be the patron of socialism)"

'AAP govt inspired by Ram Rajya'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, January 25

AFTER ORGANISING a city wide commemoration of the Ram Mandir Pran Pratishtha ceremony, chief minister Arvind Kejriwal likened the Aam Aadmi Party's (AAP) eight-year rule in the capital to "Ram Rajya" in his Republic Day address on Thursday.

Stating that his government was inspired by the concept, Kejriwal said it had sought to work on 10 principles inspired by the concept of Ram Rajya ranging from free ration to the poor and shelter to the homeless to free electricity, water, education, health, bus travel for women and pilgrimages to the elderly.

"We believe in establishing a governance system where everyone has equal rights and opportunities... Delhi's governance model has made it the city with lowest inflation in the country," Kejriwal said on the eve of Republic Day celebrations at the Chhatrasal Stadium.

After saluting and paying homage to freedom fighters, Kejriwal saluted the farmers, workers, industrialists, traders, scientists, women, youth and everyone who had contributed to taking India forward. "On 22nd January this year, Shri Ram Lalla was consecrated in Ayodhya, this is a moment of pride for the country and the world," he said.

Recalling episodes from Lord Ram's life and quoting couplets from religious texts dedicated to him, Kejriwal underlined how he willingly chose exile over governing his kingdom out of a sense of sacrifice.
